

3	CLO2 Develop basic Android mobile apps based on the architecture in Android apps development. (P3, PLO3)
4	B. Development of a mobile solution (60%)
5	No	Criteria	Developing 0 - 7 marks	Approaching 8 - 14 marks	Ideal 15 - 20 marks	Score
6	1	Quantity of work	About 20% or less of the proposed module has been completed. The completed module is a none essential part of the mobile app, i.e. About Us, Help File, Splash Screen, etc.	At least 50% of the proposed module have been completed. The completed module is an essential part of the mobile app, i.e. Login, Registration, etc.	At least 80% of the proposed module has been completed. Completed module is an essential component of the mobile app, i.e. searching, transaction-related modules and etc.
7	2	Quality of work	About 20% or less of function(s) is/are working; UI without functionality. UI was created without proper consideration of system requirements. No input validation.	About 50% of the proposed function(s) is/are working. UI components have been designed with care. At least 50% of the input validation were implemented.	At least 80% of the proposed functions are working. UI supports different device configurations. All inputs were properly validated.
8	3	Data management	No clear sign of data saving - the module could not store or retrieve data.	The module could store or retrieve data either using a local or a remote data saving method. However, a more suitable data saving is available.	Data could be stored and retrieved using the most suitable data saving method(s). Both local and remote data saving methods have been implemented.	